

SMITH FINANCIAL GROUP

16 January 2012

What Do I Do After Retirement?

This question is one of the scariest ones that Teachers and State Employees face. Because of the gap that will exist for many between being eligible for ERS / TRS retirement and when we face real retirement – typically somewhere between 65 and 70 – many people have a difficult time picturing themselves doing something different than they have done the past 20+ years. I've put together below some information that I hope will be extremely helpful in working out the next chapter of your working life. Take a look and see if these resources help get the creative juices flowing. Just click on the highlighted titles and it will take you right to the item listed.

We all want a great retirement, but how many of us are willing to pay the price to have it? Let's talk and see what it will take for you to realize your financial goals. It is easy to contact us – (512) 554-6086 or mikes@smithfinancialgrouponline.com – for an appointment right now!

- www.secondact.com - Inspirational stories, examples, articles, etc. of people who started a second career, new jobs and new businesses after age 50. Some of the topics include: Work, Money, Health & Fitness, Giving Back to Others and How to Live the Good Life. Really informative on a broad range of topics.
- 6 Tips on Planning a Second Career – Clear and practical recommendations on how to create a second career that is both lucrative and satisfying.
- Over 50? Employers Are Looking for You – I tell people this all the time. After all – I am a small business owner. This article does a good job of encapsulating why you are so desirable!
- Here are some other great websites (referenced in the article above) for your job hunt. Check them out ASAP!
 - o www.Seniors4hire.org
 - o www.Workforce50.com
 - o www.Retirementjobs.com
 - o www.jobs4point0.com
 - o www.Retiredbrains.com
 - o www.Yourencore.com
 - o www.primeCB.com
 - o www.jobsover50.com
 - o www.NOWCC.org

Give a call. Let's meet!

Michael Smith

Smith Financial Group